“Joyce and I went to Morgan Park High together and we have been great friends all these many years. I remember sitting in the family kitchen by the rail road and doing homework and chatting with her mom. Over the years although we were separated by miles we kept in touch. I will miss her friendship but will see her when we meet with our Lord. I am 89 so will hopefully be with her.
With Love and good wishes to all the family

“A fine, nice lady. I work at Lombard Place. I helped Joyce in movie. And I had many conversations with her. She frequently sat in lobby right next to reception desk. I work front desk. I will miss Joyce. Love to family. Won't only miss Joyce. Will miss family too. Nice family who made me feel good.

Love, Sandy T. from front desk. Blessings to you.

“I am so grateful to God for putting Joyce in my life. She was a precious, humble lady who adored her family and was very proud of the whole bunch. She was always there to help others, and quick to laugh or make a joke. Such good times we had getting together to study the Bible, see a musical or play, or be with friends. I will miss my dear friend but never, ever forget her and the role she played in my life. Kathi Seaman
