“ Aunt May was my "adopted" aunt, by my marriage to her nephew. I have missed seeing her now that we live far away. We were very fortunate to have time to talk with her on her last evening on this earth. I told her how much we all loved her, and that soon, our Heavenly Father would be holding her close. She said that she was ready. She talked about her visits to our homes, meals we celebrated over, good times shared, how she loved us all.

Aunt May was always good to me when we lived in Chicago. She and Uncle Jim made me feel a real part of the family when I was a "new addition" to the family. My parents and sibs were pretty far away, and I was in a part of the country that was strange to me. Once, when I was sick, she came to be with me and help with the kids. She and Jim were the first to care for our first child "all alone," when he was still a baby, while we went away for a weekend break. I knew he was safe and loved there.

We used to see May & Jim pretty regularly when we lived in Chicago. I recall that she liked fixing dessert in a little parfait, so she did not have to spend time away from guests- it was all prepared. She was so thoughtful. Later, they would travel to FL sometimes, and we would see them enroute. Aunt May always had a smile, both on her face, and in her voice. She made me smile when I heard her greeting on the phone. May she rest in peace, reconnecting with her husband Jim, brother Wallace, and many other loved ones who made way for her and will be embracing her, and showing her the ropes of Heaven.
