“ I will miss Phyllis and pray that God will bless all of you. Our phone visits while she was in the hospital were very gratifying. We had so much fun during our childhood playtimes. I send my deepest sympathy. Really wish that I could be there, but not up to driving alone at this time. My husband, Roy, is in our Health Care Unit - seems to be coming down with a cold and I don't want to leave him here alone. Would be good to see all of you. May God's Love be with all of you. With Much Love,
Cousin Gloria Boedeker
